

BACKGROUND:

Reventus Ltd understands that your privacy is important to you and that you care about how your personal data is used. We respect and value the privacy of everyone who visits this website, www.reventus.co.uk ("Our Site") and will only collect and use personal data in ways that are described here, and in a way that is consistent with our obligations and your rights under the law.

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully and ensure that you understand it. Your acceptance of this Privacy Policy is requested upon continued use of the site.

1. Information About Us

Our Site is owned and operated by Reventus Ltd, a limited company registered in England under company number 04714602.

Registered address: 201 Haverstock Hill, Belsize Park, London, NW3 4QG.

Main trading address: Unit 44 HEC, Pindar Road, Hoddesdon, EN11 0FJ.

VAT number: 836 0655 24.

Email address: info@reventus.co.uk

Telephone number: 03301 221 221.

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations 2016 ("GDPR"), Reventus Limited is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO") as the data controller under registration No: Z234673X

We are regulated by:

- Taking Control of Goods Regulations 2013 – which set out the procedure enforcement agents must follow when taking control of goods.
- Taking Control of Goods (Fees) Regulations 2014 – which introduced a new fee regime for High Court Enforcement (replacing the multiple fee structures that were previously in place in disparate pieces of legislation and common law). The new structure is based on a staged approach with trigger points, which remunerate the officers for each stage undertaken.
- Certification of Enforcement Agents Regulations 2014 – which focused on the requirements an individual must meet before they are granted a certificate to work as an enforcement agent.

We are a member of:

- Civil Enforcement Association (CIVEA)
- British Parking Association
- The Institute of Revenues Rating and Valuation (IRRV)

2. What Does This Policy Cover?

This Privacy Policy applies only to customers and not to local authority users. The privacy policy applicable to local authority clients' users is available upon request (refer to section 11 to contact us) Our Site may contain links to other websites. Please note that We have no control over how your data is collected, stored, or used by other websites and We advise you to check the privacy policies of any such websites before providing any data to them.

3. What Is Personal Data?

Personal data is defined by the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 (the "GDPR") and the Data Protection Act 2018 (collectively, "the Data Protection Legislation") as 'any information relating to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified in particular by reference to an identifier'.

Personal data is, in simpler terms, any information about you that enables you to be identified. Personal data covers obvious information such as your name and contact details, but it also covers less obvious information such as identification numbers, electronic location data, and other online identifiers.

4. What Are My Rights?

Under the Data Protection Legislation, you have the following rights, which we will always work to uphold:

- a) The right to be informed about our collection and use of your personal data. This Privacy Policy should tell you everything you need to know, but you can always contact us to find out more or to ask any questions using the details in Section 11.
- b) The right to access the personal data we hold about you. Section 11 will tell you how to do this.
- c) The right to have your personal data rectified if any of your personal data held by us is inaccurate or incomplete. Please contact us using the details in Section 11 to find out more.
- d) The right to be forgotten, i.e. the right to ask us to delete or otherwise dispose of any of your personal data that we hold. Please contact us using the details in Section 11 to find out more.
- e) The right to restrict (i.e. prevent) the processing of your personal data.
- f) The right to object to us using your personal data for a particular purpose or purposes.
- g) The right to withdraw consent. This means that, if we are relying on your consent as the legal basis for using your personal data, you are free to withdraw that consent at any time.
- h) The right to data portability. This means that, if you have provided personal data to us directly, we are using it with your consent or for the performance of a contract, and that data is processed using automated means, you can ask us for a copy of that personal data to re-use with another service or business in many cases.

- i) Rights relating to automated decision-making and profiling. We do not use your personal data in this way.

We are processing your data under public task; processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller and therefore do not need your consent.

You do not have the following rights under public task:

- a) The right to be forgotten – i.e. the right to ask Us to delete any personal data We hold about you;
- b) The right to data portability (obtaining a copy of your personal data to re-use with another service or organisation);
- c) The right to object to Us using your personal data for particular purposes; and

For more information about our use of your personal data or exercising your rights as outlined above, please contact us using the details provided in Section 11.

It is important that your personal data is kept accurate and up to date. If any of the personal data we hold about you changes, please keep us informed as long as we have that data.

Further information about your rights can also be obtained from the Information Commissioner’s Office or your local Citizens Advice Bureau.

We would welcome the opportunity to resolve your concerns ourselves, so please contact us first, using the details in Section 11.

If you have any continued cause for complaint about our use of your personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner’s Office.

5. What Data Do You Collect and How?

We will be given personal data by our clients and provided by other relevant sources in order to fulfil our role in the collection of local authority revenue under the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 and other relevant legislation.
